Software Engineers

What you will do

At Allianz we are looking for an Software Engineer to work with us to collaborating proactively with functional analyst to translate business and application requirement into configurable components designs and solutions. You will also responsible for Design and develop technical solutions for business requirements, design and develop scalable components including packages, stored procedures, extensions, views and customizations independently or as a part of a team.

Who you'll work with

You will be part of an innovative customer experience design team responsible for reimagining the way customers and partners interact with Allianz. Our team develops game-changing applications, solutions, and services.

Your Responsibilities

- Develop core system functionality
- Analyze and refactor business logic
- Modernize & service enable core systems
- Analyze problems and fix them
- Code optimization

Who You Are

- 3+ years' experience with similar position and preferable in the same industry
- Hands on experience on Oracle Forms 10 /11 / Oracle Reports 10
- Experienced in PL/SQL development.
- Development experience of other Oracle tools (Toad, sql+, Designer)
- Strong knowledge and understanding of Database queries optimization and tuning
- Database design patterns
- Excellent written, verbal skills in English and Bahasa Indonesia