

Financial Risk Management

Job Role:

Financial Risk management and control monitoring Financial Risk Manager is individual within the Company risk management function who possess Financial Risk expertise and primarily responsible for 2nd Line of Defense and independent oversight of Financial Risk Management by the Company.

This person is responsible to coordinate all Financial Risk management requirements and activities in line with local regulation and Group policies; which adequately addresses Financial Risk types, development and execution of a Risk Management Framework to identify, (quantitatively) assess, report, and monitor company specific risks in an accurate and timely manner.

Requirements:

- Experienced in Financial Risk related risk management process (risk identification, assessment, mitigation)
- Understand the regulatory requirements of Indonesia related to Financial Risk
- Risk modelling experience
- Understanding actuarial
- Experienced in insurance company
- Risk certification