Congress Confirm Joe Biden's Victory, Trump Promises Peaceful Transition

The United States Congress (US) officially confirmed Joe Biden as the next US president, on Thursday (7/1) local time. This decision was President Donald Trump's final blow, after his supporters stormed the Capitol building in Washington hours before it was passed. With this decision, the members of parliament in the US Senate and House of Representatives managed to beat the Republican Party's attempt to reject the electoral vote that won Biden as the US elected president. The ratification of Congress confirms Biden's victory over Trump in the November 3 2020 presidential election, with a vote of 306-232. Although still refusing to acknowledge Biden's victory, President Trump continued to release a statement promising an orderly transition.
