Manager Commentary

Central Bureau Statistics of Indonesia (BPS) announced Dec 2021 inflation +0.57% mom (vs consensus inflation +0.52%, +0.37% in Nov 2021). On yearly basis, inflation was +1.87% yoy (vs consensus inflation +1.81%, +1.75% in Nov 2021). Core inflation was printed at +1.56% yoy (vs consensus inflation +1.53%, +1.44% in Nov 2021). The increment of monthly inflation was contributed by the higher inflation of volatile food group (higher chili and cooking oil prices), and also the increment of inflation on administered prices group ahead of Christmas and New Year Holiday due to higher airfare. The BI Board of Governors agreed on 15-16 Dec 2021 to hold the BI 7-Day Reverse Repo Rate at 3.50%, and also hold the Deposit Facility (DF) and Lending Facility (LF) rates at 2.75% and 4.25%, respectively. This policy is to maintain Rupiah stability in the middle of global uncertainty and also the lower inflation. Rupiah appreciated against USD by +0.5% from 14,340 at end of Nov 2021 to 14,269 at end of Dec 2021. Indonesia's trade balance recorded surplus amounting to USD 3,513mn in Nov 2021 vs previous month surplus USD 5,733mn in Oct 2021. The trade surplus recorded lower growth compared last month by -39% which was impacted by higher oil and gas import which grew by +94%. Non-oil and gas trade balance in Nov 2021 recorded surplus USD +5,206mn, which was higher than the previous month that recorded trade surplus amounting to USD +6,606mn. Meanwhile, oil and gas trade balance still recorded deficit to USD -1,693mn in Nov 2021, which was higher than the deficit in Oct 2021 amounting to USD -873mn. Indonesia's official foreign reserve in the end of Dec 2021 was at USD 144.9bn, slightly higher than Nov 2021 number at USD 145.9bn due to external debt payment.

In regards to our recent portfolio strategy, we maintain the portfolio mostly in deposits and would seek the opportunity to buy high rating corporate bonds with maturity under 1Y.
