Taiwan was a top performer led by a recovering semiconductor sector, optimism in the technology sector grew during the month. China was a top performer led by the manufacturing sector. The Philippines and Thailand were bottom performers due to negative earnings revisions. Finally, the markets in the Philippines and Thailand declined due to negative earnings revisions.

Central Bureau Statistics of Indonesia (BPS) announced November 2019 inflation at +0.14% mom (vs consensus inflation +0.20%, +0.02% in October 2019). On yearly basis, inflation was +3.00% yoy (vs consensus inflation +3.06%, +3.13% in October 2019). Core inflation was printed at +3.08% yoy (vs consensus inflation +3.14%, +3.20% in October 2019). The inflation was still affected by increasing prices in food stuffs group, such as: meat, chicken & tomato. In the Board of Governors' Meeting on 20th and 21st November 2019 Bank Indonesia kept the BI 7-day Reverse Repo Rate unchanged on 5.00%, also maintaining the Deposit Facility (DF) and Lending Facility (LF) rates at 4.25% and 5.75%, respectively. This policy is still supported by manageable inflation that within target range as well. In contrast with that, BI lowered the bank's reserve requirements for second times in this year by 50bps to 5.50% for commercial banks and to 4.00% for shariah banks. This policy which will be implemented in January 2020, is expected to give liquidity in banks sector amounting to IDR 26trillion. Rupiah depreciated by -0.67% to 14,102/USD at end of November 2019 from 14,008/USD in previous month. Indonesia's trade balance recorded surplus amounting to USD +161mn in October 2019 vs previous month deficit USD -160mn. The surplus was caused by the declining of import growth deeper than export growth. The slowing down on import and export was affected by global trade slowing down, including Indonesia's biggest trading partner, China. Non-oil and gas trade balance in October 2019 recorded surplus USD +990mn, higher than the previous month which was also resulting surplus amounting to USD +601mn. Meanwhile, oil and gas trade balance still recorded deficit to USD -829mn in October 2019, higher than the deficit on September 2019 amounting to USD -762mn. Indonesia's official foreign reserve as of November 2019 was at USD 126.63billion, slightly lower than October 2019's number at USD 126.7billion.

Equity market corrected in November as sentiment from the US-China trade war took some setback, where there is a possibility that the first phase of trade deal being delayed until early 2020. On the local front, there was selling pressure by foreign investors on large-cap stocks triggered by MSCI rebalancing as well as several news flows related to government intervention in certain sectors, such as Banking and Utilities (gas prices) Sectors. In addition, selling pressure were seen from domestic investors as well as OJK forcibly closed several problematic onshore mutual funds on various grounds. On a more positive note the government is pushing the Omnibus law to be approved and implemented by 1H20 which would favor a more conducive foreign and domestic direct investment which would hopefully trigger rounds of capex cycle. Sector wise, the Mining Sector was the worst performing sector during the week, declining 9.52% MoM. Ticker wise, DKFT (Central Omega Resources) and PSAB (J Resources Asia Pacific) were the laggards, depreciating 34.65% and 33.22% MoM respectively.
