Manager Commentary

Central Bureau Statistics of Indonesia (BPS) announced June 2020 inflation at +0.18% mom (vs consensus inflation +0.05%, +0.07% in May 2020). On yearly basis, inflation was +1.96% yoy (vs consensus inflation +1.84%, +2.19% in May 2020). Core inflation was printed at +2.26% yoy (vs consensus inflation +2.38%, +2.65% in May 2020). The inflation is still considered low, but better than previous months, which was supported by the inflation volatile price group (increment on chicken, egg, and coconut prices). In the Board of Governors' Meeting on 17-18 June 2020, Bank Indonesia cut the BI 7-day Reverse Repo Rate by 25bps to be 4.25%, and also cut the Deposit Facility (DF) and Lending Facility (LF) rates by 25bps to be 3.00% and 5.00% level, respectively. This policy is for keeping the economic stability and for the economic recovery which is affected by the Covid-19. Rupiah appreciated by +2.93% to 14,302 at the end of June 2020 from 14,733/USD at end of May 2020. Indonesia's trade balance recorded surplus amounting to USD +2,092mn in May 2020 vs previous month deficit USD -345mn. The trade surplus was caused by the contraction in import number that are related with the supporting for investment, such as machineries, raw material and capital goods. The export number also lower on the back of lower coal export number which is caused by the weak price of commodity. Non-oil and gas trade balance in April 2020 recorded surplus USD +2,098, while the previous month recorded trade deficit amounting to USD -100.7mn. Meanwhile, oil and gas trade balance still recorded deficit to USD -6mn in May 2020, which was lower than the deficit on April 2020 amounting to USD -243mn. Indonesia's official foreign reserve as of June 2020 was at USD 131.7billion, higher than May 2020's number at USD 130.5billion. The increment of foreign reserve was supported by the issuance of global sukuk bonds amounting to USD 2.5bn.

USD government bond yields closed lower all across the curve. The bullish market were seen in the beginning of the week which offshore were seen taken the offer in the market. The excitement of the re-opening economy around the world was the reason behind it despite fearing of the second wave of the Covid-19 spreading is still haunted. Some global positive sentiments also supported the market, such as: monetary policy from ECB and FED to support the economics from falling to the recession, the expectation for the lower tension of trade wars between US and China in the near term. The injection of liquidity to State-Owned Banks by Minister of Finance as well as the cut of benchmark rate by Bank Indonesia supported the local market as well. The solid demand in sukuk global bond issuance showed persistent interest from investors. On 17 June 2020, Government issued sukuk global bonds through three different tenor, there are: 5 years, 10 years, and 30 years with total issuance amounting to USD 2.5bn. This funding will be used as additional budget to address the impact of Covid-19. Indonesia's CDS 5yr level was better in June 2020 compared with previous month, from 173/178 to 132/138. The 5Y yield June 2020 ended -16bps lower to +2.15% (+2.31% in May 2020), 10yr tenor ended -1bps lower to +2.61% (+2.62% on May 2020), 15yr tenor ended -15bps lower to +3.70% (+3.85% on April 2020), and 25yr ended -9bps lower to +3.73% (+3.82% on May 2020).

In regards to our recent portfolio we maintain the strategy, and gradually buying from fresh money.
